

Humboldt Energy Independence Fund

invites you to

Submit Your On-Campus Sustainable Idea

IDEA PAPER
Deadline

25 March
2019

HEIF is a student-run organization that focuses on creating a more sustainable campus by implementing projects inspired from student ideas. Notable projects include installation of photovoltaic solar panels on the Music A building, hydration stations around campus, and relighting of the Redwood Bowl to cut energy costs. Students can make a direct and effective impact to change the way Humboldt State conserves energy, a primary goal of the Fund.
